

PAINT IT BLACK

Hank and Tony couldn't get any cuter!
We love these two hams.

NEWS YOU CAN USE!

Annual Holiday Supply Drive: Starting Monday October 30th until November 17th The Puppy Palace will be collecting Food and Supplies for Lehigh County Humane Society!

Pictures with Santa: Nov 27th-Dec 1st: Join Zoe for Santa pics taken during day care! A familiar face will be checking her list!! The photos will have a fast turn around (less than a week) so they are sure to be to you in time for card making needs.

Election Day Tuesday November 7th: Make your voice heard this year! Local elections make more of an impact than most are aware. This is not the big dog election we hold, look out for that in '24! We are open!
We will be closed for Thanksgiving and Black Friday, November 23rd and 24th

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO YOU!!

SCARY HARRY

Don't let his nickname fool ya, Harry really isn't scary! He's a sweetie with a softspot for Miss Lindsay and his brother Mickey! We love this dude!

MARGO

Margo is a gentle giant! She is such a sweetie and loves to play with her brother Louie. She thinks she is a lapdog, and we don't mind the big cuddles!

IMPULSE CONTROL

In an exciting environment like daycare, impulse control is essential for smooth transitions throughout our day. This is something that can be practiced anywhere and everywhere, and will benefit your pup during exciting circumstances.

Some simple ways to practice impulse control at home with your dog include:

- Sitting and waiting until your pup is settled at doors/thresholds (before getting out of the car, before exiting the house at doorways)
- Sitting and waiting until your pup is settled before feedings.
- Sitting and waiting until your pup is settled before playing with toys.
- Practicing the "Leave it" command with treats, food and toys.

Some of our goodest boys and girls practicing impulse control at day care:
